

Grabijolai Village

Grabijolų kaimas, Kazokiškių sen., Elektrėnų sav.

Grabijolai is a street-built village of 25 homesteads located on the left bank of the Neris River, with a number of old wooden architecture and interesting decorations.

Grabijolai hiking trail

Grabijolų kaimas, Kazokiškių sen., Elektrėnų sav.

Grabijolai winds through mystical Alkos hills, Zapalina manor site, the Ilgoja rivulet, a recently discovered Paalkiai Hill fort, the Neris river valley with mythological stones in its riverbed, and the biggest oak in our regional park – the Alkai oak tree.

Trail of the Neris left bank

Paneriai, Vievio sen., Elektrėnų sav.

Whether on four wheels, two wheels or two feet, you can explore a beautiful, forested Neris river valley on this 25 km long tourist route. It curves along the greatest (mushroom-shaped!) turn of the Neris, approaching the river and again turning to the dense forest.

Paneriškės sight

Paneriškiai, Vievio sen., Elektrėnų sav.

The valleys of the Neris along the route are truly spectacular and enchanting with their unique play of relief and color all year round. The panorama of the Neris Valley opens up to Ausiutiškės. From the observation tower you can see the beginning of the Devil's Loop thrown by the Neris - the largest in the length of the river 510 km - you can look around the pine forests.

in Elektrėnai*

Elektrėnai Ice Palace

Draugystės g. 24, Elektrėnai

The palace was built in 1976, the same year that the most famous Lithuanian ice hockey club, Energija, was founded. It was the incubator of many famous ice hockey players. In 2008, the ice palace development project was added to the list of state-planned tourism attractions and the Arena was declared an object of national importance.

Sculpture Park

Šalia draugystės g. 5, Elektrėnai

The Park of Sculptures was established in 2001 on the initiative of Vanda Umbrasienė, a folk artist, to commemorate the villages that were flooded and destroyed during the creation of the Elektrėnai Reservoir in 1962.

Elektrėnai "Children's World"

Draugystės g. 30, Elektrėnai

Children's World is a place where you can relax in nature, have active entertainment or simply admire the Elektrėnai Lagoon. The park is suitable for visitors of various age groups. It has pedestrian and bicycle paths, two skate/scooter parks, an amphitheater, and outdoor fitness areas.

The Granary of Abromiškės Manor

Sanatorijos g. 32, Abromiškės, Elektrėnų sen. Elektrėnų sav.

This place is abuzz with activities for the locals: various lectures, sports training and other events happen here. One of the biggest events, for which the Granary serves as a base, is the traditional hike In the "Footsteps of the Green Devil".

The Church of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Martyrs

Atgimimo aikštė 3, Elektrėnai

The focal point of the exterior of the church is the magnificent gateway symbolising the Septcentennial of Christianity in Lithuania. The centerpiece of the church is the sculpture of the Risen Christ.

Abromiškės Manor

Sanatorijos g. 33, Abromiškės, Elektrėnų sen. Elektrėnų sav.

The manor was built in 1571 by Abraham Poniatowski. In the nineteenth century, the manor was considered to be one of the most beautiful and well-maintained manors in Lithuania. The manor was a bustling center of culture and home to a valuable library and collections of paintings.

Museum of Lithuania Roads

Kauno g. 14, Vievis

The museum focuses on acquiring objects that reflect the history of the Lithuanian roads, dating back from the Roman Empire to the present day. Here visitors can see model buildings, road construction and repair tools, equipment, carts, road signs, road maps, photographs, books, magazines and other Lithuanian and foreign publications on road construction and maintenance.

The Church of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Victory

Bažnyčios g. 22, Kazokiškės, Elektrėnų sav.

The church-goers are proud to have a copy of the painting "Santa Maria de Victoria" (located in Naples) which was brought to Kazokiškės in 1680 by the Dominican Ludwig Skicki. The painting acquired fame in the surrounding area for its miracles: the blind regained their sight and the seriously ill were healed.
